I made Grummz think I was a disgruntled Ubisoft dev who was collecting damning materials that proved DEI and woke policies were being foisted upon their employees. After messaging back and forth a few times I shared the smoking gun with him.

After the harassment you underwent today I think I'd like you to be the one to reveal the smoking gun that proves once and for all that DEI and woke policies have taken over the gaming industry. I have a couple of images of said documents I'd like to send you here if that's ok.
Hi. I'll keep doing what I am doing. If you share docs we would also have to verify you in some way.

Were we mislead?
Ok here you go.

Hi Grummz. I hope you read this. You might have seen a trailer drop for a game I am actively working on for one of the worst perpetrators of DEI garbage in the AAA game space. I just wanted to say thank you for being a voice for the voiceless. So many of us are trapped in AAA studios and can't speak out on these issues if we don't have the same woke opinions as the people forcing us to make our games this way.
keeping this account anon for fear of retaliation if my true opinions were ever made public. I can't afford to lose my job right now.
Hi. Sorry to hear that, but sadly so many feel as you do working in AAA. That trailer really blew things up.

There are some coded messages we put into the game to let gamers know we're with them, and that these choices aren't being made by us.
So I have multiple sources that have worked on this. I've been told the original choice was not a DEI choice, but that its since been through other writers and the CD and I don' thave a clear picture of what happened after that.
The obfuscation is deliberate
Ah, interesting
